

Workshop on Communication Skills and Professional Ethics for Library Information Assistants

The University Librarians' Association of Sri Lanka (ULA) arranged a "Workshop on Communication Skills and Professional Ethics for Library Information Assistants" on 25th February 2016 at the Postgraduate Institute of Humanities and Social Sciences (PGIHSS), University of Peradeniya. The following delegates participated in the inauguration session of this series of workshops. 57 Library Information Assistants participated from island wide University libraries.

Chief Guest:

Prof: R. L Wijeyeweera, Deputy Vice Chancellor, University of Peradeniya

Other Distinguish Delegates

Prof: O.G. Dayarathne Banda, Dean, Faculty of Arts

Dr. Chaminda weerasiriwardane, Consultant, Medical Officer, Teaching Hospital, Kandy

Prof: H.M.D.R. Herath, Head, Department of Sociology University of Peradeniya

Mr. U. D. Dodanwala, Acting Registrar, University of Peradeniya,

Mr. R. Maheshwaran, Acting Librarian, University of Peradeniya,

Ms. S. Arulanatham, President - ULA,

Mr. Sunil Premarathne, Training officer - ULA

All senior staff members of the University of Peradeniya Library Network.

Resource Persons:

1). Dr. Chaminda weerasiriwardane, Consultant, Medical Officer, Teaching Hospital, Kandy and Practicing Counselor and Psychotherapist.

Title of the Morning Session: "Improving Communication Skills and Customer Care of the Library Information Assistants"

2). Prof: H.M.D.R . Herath, Head, Department of Sociology University of Peradeniya.

Title of the Morning Session: "Employees Organizational Commitment and Professional Ethics"