1. Introduction

Periodicals and Journals, an Information Source on current research findings in all knowledge fields a must for the academia to foster teaching and further research and for the students an indispensable learning tool, were collected by the first university since its establishment in 1942. Since its move to Peradeniya, the wealth of periodicals and journals increased rapidly with the opening of new faculties and the intake of students. As Learning, Teaching and Research developed, so did this particular library collection.

This Guide covers approximately 1279 retrospective periodical titles collected from 1942 up to 2006, almost all in the area of Social Sciences and Humanities stored on the fifth floor in the Main Library, University of Peradeniya.
