Trial Access to the DrillBit Anti-Plagiarism Web tool

All state Universities on the island received a trial access of one month period to the plagiarism software named "DrillBit Anti-Plagiarism Web tool". The trial access period is valid until 31st July 2023. Nominations for account creation have been called from each faculty/ department to utilize this golden opportunity to enhance the academic integrity of our community.

DrillBit Anti-Plagiarism Web tool

DrillBit Anti-Plagiarism Web tool helping students, universities, research labs, writers, and corporates to write better research papers since 2016. The software can be used to scan students' papers/ assignments/ synopsis/ theses/ dissertations/ articles and to get plagiarism-free certificates. DrillBit is the Best-in-class and most affordable cloud-powered originality checker in the world. It covers an extensive amount of academic content in 100 languages Leveraging the latest AI and Machine Learning technologies.

DrillBit can deduct hidden and special characters within the document.
DrillBit helps institutes to create a repository of their own research papers so that documents within the institute cannot be plagiarized, especially in students' projects, dissertations, assignments, etc.

Content coverage of DrillBit

91+ billions of web pages, 12K+ Publishers, 12K + Thesis & Dissertations Repositories and 80K + Journals (CrossRef listed, STM Publishers and Scopus Indexed Journals) & Repositories which are updated on daily basis.

Who developed this tool?

Balani Infotech is India's leading Library and Information Services Provider partnering with the world's leading publishers and societies. For more information about DrillBit and Balani group please visit the following websites
(https://www.drillbitplagiarism.com/ and https://www.balaniinfotech.com/)

For more information
librarian@pdn.ac.lk